Subject: RE: bring unity to USA

Hi Cris & Cristina

Thank you for your kind words to me and my wife Monina. These days it is rare to hear encouraging words in the e-mail. Yes, I remember you and your young beautiful family during the MC retreat and it is so rewarding to hear that you both have given your all to God after listening to the MC talk # 5 on " Giving all to God " Monina and I just got back this morning from out of the country. I had responded to this mail last week, but apparently, this was never sent because we were in a place where the internet was really very poor.

Allow me to use your mail as the anchor for my address to the CFC body, since you and many others are concerned about the unity in our community.

I have tried my best to live up to the teachings in the MC retreat that I give on " being firm and steadfast and not to swerve either to the right or to the left" when situations like what we have now in CFC.

It saddens me, however, that some MCG have not really lived up to their commitment, but have tried and are still trying to divide CFC USA. The saddest part of all is that the US council members who are also MCG members are the ones trying to create division here. I am alone in the " good fight of faith" here in the US council. In a recent defiant letter sent to the new duly elected CFC International Council dated July 17, 2007, these members of the US council said " we therefore cannot accept or follow any of your directives, appointments or pronouncements since your own election into office" and they have further stated that " We the undersigned also agree that we have not invited Joe Tale, Melo Villaroman Jr., or any of the IC members to our US conference and NC meeting" they stated also "Please also know that if any of these Manila elders, who are not invited to the conference and/or NC meeting still decide to come, we members of the NC will not approve reimbursement of their travel expenses".

The members of the U.S. National council who signed said letter are the following: Nani Almanza, Edwin Andrews, Ricky Coronel, Manny Hermano and Jun Villamayor.

They have refused to obey and are very unchristian in their statements. They simply do not want to obey the new leadership pf CFC. This is totally unacceptable for members of the CFC MCG.I would venture to say that they will not also obey our new US Country Coordinator, Ricky Cuenca, who has been appointed replacing Frank Padilla.

Cris & Cristina, you and many CFC members need to stand up and defend CFC USA. If you recall, MCG is supposed to defend CFC according to the teaching we all learned and committed to. It is your right and the right of every CFC member to inherit a CFC that is strong and focused on our mission and vision and most especially focused on our Lord Jesus Christ, not on one human person or group of people.

The US National Council exists only because of the members.

I appeal therefore to you, the MCG and the rest of the CFC members to correct anyone, including leaders, if they are maligning CFC. This is our ministry, this is where our Lord called us into a relationship with Him, everyone therefore especially the young generation, have a right to inherit a CFC they can pass on to the rest of their generations.

This weekend, we are having the 10th anniversary of CFC in the Caribbean in St. Vincent and the Grenadines. We have at least 3 Bishops who will attend and celebrate Mass during the 3 day conference. We have the support of the Bishops and Clergy Our own US CFC East-West conference is upon us. All preparations have been made and the talks will be uplifting, encouraging and up-building. We have done away with lamentation and repentance. It is time to move on. The talks will be "Claim to Nobility" "Chosen People" " Continue Rising Unafraid " and "Hope in the Lord".

We will also have time for interaction among the conference attendees. The conference committees on both East-West have done a tremendous job, and they are to be commended. Mass will be celebrated during both conferences by Bishops also and will be attended by other Clergy .We are being supported by the church hierarchy.

Our CFC Director, Joe Tale, has authorized me and the conference committee to make decisions regarding the talks and speakers. Joe Tale, and some of our new International Council members – Melo Villaroman Jr, Joey Arguelles and Joe Yamamoto are scheduled to come and deliver talks and sharing. Our new US Country Coordinator, Ricky Cuenca will also be present. Let us all make this conference an offering to God for giving us Hope.

Cris & Cristina you are an example of a true MCG and a Couples for Christ member. May God continue to bless you and your family. Please free to disseminate this letter to other MCG and CFC members.

Let us rally behind one another and continue proclaiming the good news and God's glory to all. May God be praised.

Joe Duran, National Director, CFC USA

Subject: bring unity to USA

May the Peace of Christ be with you Brethren and your family,

May this email find you and your love ones in good health in mind body and soul. If there is one in Couples for Christ USA that I look up to as a Godly humble man I would say it is you brother. Kneeling in front of many people in the CFC Conference is not an easy thing to do. You and your wife encouraged us to give our all to God in your talk in the ECG retreat years ago in NJ and I don't know if you even remember us. This email might not come as a good time for you as our community is in turmoil even if we ignore it. Our community the army of the church who is commissioned by Christ to renew the face of the earth is under attack. Not by people, not by our leaders but by pride, deception, omission, rivalry, aggression, vested interest and self preservation. I humbly come to you brethren to come in agreement with all MCG USA about our current situation. Brethren we believe in your anointing and we believe you and our current council can bring unity to our community here in the USA.

God Bless you and may God have mercy on us.

We remain as your brother and sister,
Cris and Cristina Baltazar – New Jersey MCG
